STOCKS DOWN, UP AND DOWN AGAIN

Unsettling Influences of Strong Conflicting Forces Shown in Wild Fluctuations.

FEAR OF WAR IN BALKANS

This Depresses Securities, While Northern Pacific "Melon Cutting" Rumors Cause Activity.

NEW YORK, October 5 .- Prices of stocks fluctuated wildly to-day and showed the unsettling of strong conflicting forces. On the one hand was the acute crisis developed in the Eastern question, and on the other the tonic effect of the striking up with ern question, and on the other the tonic effect of the striking up with movement in the Hill stocks. It was noticeable that while prices recovered readily from the opening break caused by the Bulgarian war prospect, they was much more hesitation in following the further recovery over the level in sympathy with the strength in the Hills, and weakness was renewed at the last. This was partly ascribed to the individual causes supposed to be back of the Hill movement, which, it was feared, might leave the general list unresponsive.

The Northern Pacific "melon-cutting" rumors were revived in full force and were responsible for the buoyant rise in that stock and in Great Northern preferred. The late reaction owed something to the fear of further of Accurtailment in the market for totton might be supposed, and the weakness in the cotton price was a reflection of this. On the other hand, a quickened a demand for our breadstuffs could be assumed. The effect of this assumption on the price of wheat was offset by the news of the heavy movement of grain to markets and favorable crop news. The closing tone was much unsettled and weak. Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value, $3,490.000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales of stocks to-day were 18,600 shares. Total sales of stocks to-day were offerings. Futures opened easy at a decline of 59th points when compared with Saturday's close, on the news of disturbed political conditions in the Balkan States. Trading was quiet throughout the day. Shorts were good sellers and spot houses were giso said to be selling contracts as hedges against actual cotton they were holding. The weather was again exceptionally good and added to the barrish feeling. On the closing the tone was steady and prices showed a net decline for the day of 15th spoints. Closing bids: October, £43; November, £27; December, £25; January, £27. February, £25; March, £35.

HAVANA. October 5.—The Ward Line steamer Monterey, from New York for Vera Cruz, entered Havana harbor early this morning with a fire in her forward hold, which started yesterday morning. The forward hatches have been scaled to smother the fire, and the steamer is now being unloaded from the after hatches. The extent of the fire has not yet been ascertained, but it is expected that a large part of the cargo will be taken out undamaged.
